

FEEN, HEARD AND TOLD

(By Andrew Whitaker)

It has been brought to my attention, and I am passing it around, for what it may be worth. That some wardens of this section are spending most of their time out around Grenada Lake and Grenada Bay. Whether they do this because it is convenient or easy for them, or whether they sincerely are trying to protect the fish (and it looks to me like the supply of fish is almost unlimited) or to protect the ducks (which I believe can protect themselves about as good as any wild animal or game); and just letting our ward.

As smart as those ducks are out on Grenada Lake, they do not need ANY protecting. It has been said that "the more fish caught out of a lake or stream, the better fishing will be". So WHY give fish so much attention? But, who's going to protect the quail and our game wardens. Think this over!

Bad Chaplins is still single!

The VFW's annual Christmas Party will be Saturday, December 17.

Admission to the above-mentioned party (for members and their guests) will be a $1 basket of groceries, to be given to needy families of Grenada County. That is a fine gesture we think.

According to a release from Donald Sharp, Postmaster, the Post Office will remain open on Saturday afternoon, December 10, 17, and 24 for the convenience of patrons.

According to Ray Horton, Earl is getting along fine now. And, that is good news to us because we have always liked Earl Horton.

Dispy Billy Horton must not have sold EVERYBODY Christmas cards as we have had quite a few orders for printed cards here lately.

It looks as if Grenada is getting along fine under the Council-Manager form of city government.

According to Donald Shipp, he has sold his interest in Shipp Drug Store, as of December 1st.

Jack Shipp has also sold his Gulf service station to Clarence Lott. Jack is catching up on his fishing and pool shooting this month.

It looks like the C. of C. has another good man as its president, i.e. Joel Batson.

Mrs. P. H. Youngblood and Mrs. E. C. Hayward are seen at the spillway about as much as anyone these days. They catch fish, too.

Mr. H. L. Honeycutt walked down Green Street Tuesday.

If there are more errors in this issue than usual, it is probably because we have had our man, Mr. Austin, setting type. If you don't know who Mr. Austin is, he is just plain J. Fred.

Dick Jones, manager of Troy Plantation, about six miles northeast of Grenada, killed an American Bald Eagle out there the other day. From wing tip to wing tip the bird measured 7 feet. Mr. Jones said that he had been missing young calves and pigs for sometime, and this fellow was probably responsible.

Another one of these eagles was killed a few weeks ago near Tupelo.

Those in charge of decorating up-town Grenada did a fine job. It is a crying shame that some prankster or pranksters, removed and destroyed one of Santa's reindeer. The guilty should pay!

Folks around Grenada must be a-bout fed-up on fish. Usually when you ask a person whether he wants a mess of fish, he will then ask you, "are they cleaned?"

In a letter from Dorothy, out in California, she said that when fishing in ponds out there, one has to pay 40 cents a pound for all the fish they catch. Ain't that something. You can't give away un-cleaned fish here.

Sorry to hear that our good friend Mr. William Joiner, has been under the weather lately in the VA hospital in Biloxi. Mr. Joiner is a fine man.

John Bradley came to see us Wednesday afternoon. Mighty glad to see John up and about again.

THE VALLEY OF TEARS (Mrs. J. M. Bryant)

I am passing through the valley of tears where so many enter both night and day.

My poor old heart is so crushed by grief about all I do is to cry and pray.

Later I will feel God by my side and He will be holding my hand.

I will feel He doeth all things well though then as now. His ways I may not fully understand.

I will think of these loved ones in Heaven with my loved ones gone before.

They will all be happy singing praises to God forever more.

Now I think of how happy they were planning their new home here.

That their plans might be changed in their hearts, they held no fear.

Being only human through years of illness, they being so kind to me I feel God will be patient giving my mind ample time their Heaven's home to see.

With them there, to me God will seem nearer.

And Heaven far, far more dearer.

Jacksonian Speaks To Local Kiwanians

At the regular Tuesday noon meeting of the Kiwanis Club this week, Kiwanian Walter Barbee introduced the guest speaker, Dick Dorman of Jackson director of the L. P. Gas Division Motor Vehicle Comptroller of Mississippi. Mr. Dorman is in charge of all state Butane gas inspectors.

He gave a most interesting talk entitled "What Happened to the Smoke?" He stated that L. P. Gas was brought to Mississippi in 1920 by Jess Dockery, who now operates an active Butane business in Jackson. Mr. Dorman said that when he became associated with the company in 1930 one million gallons of gas were used in Mississippi and that last year 127 million gallons were used. 2 million people in the state Mr. Dorman stressed uses of L. P. Gas by housewives and farmers and industrialists and the safety and cleanliness of gas.

He stressed the importance of safety in the installation and serving of Butane gas systems showing by a very important demonstration the necessity of L. P. Gas being handled only by qualified and bonded dealers.

Two Nationally Wanted Parolees Apprehended Here

Kenneth Hoffman of Des Moines, Iowa was placed in jail here in Grenada Wednesday afternoon by City Police, after suspicion was aroused by his attempt to quick-sell a 1955 Oldsmobile.

The first report came through Frank Thomas of Beat 4, who reported his suspicion to Chief Pat Ray. He was picked up at Brown Motor Co. and gave the name, Floyd H. Crowell of Reno, Nevada. He had bought a Mississippi license tag in Sardinia.

City Manager John McEachin got in touch, over the phone, with Reno, Nev. police and located the real owner of the car.

Hoffman had $111.00 in his pocket, also a -1.50 pawn ticket with a Los Angeles, Calif. address, showing he was there and had pawned a lighter for $1.50. So, the law recognized the fact that Hoffman was broke on Nov. 19th. The FBI agent from Greenwood came to Grenada to assist Grenada officers. He has a 2-term penitentiary record and is wanted by the Federal office for violation of parole. He attempted to implicate Crowell by saying Crowell paid him to wreck the Oldsmobile, but that instead of wrecking it he just kept on driving.

Proclamation

Another year has passed and as we approach this Christmas Season we pause to take an inventory of all our Blessings, both material and spiritual. We always find that God has blessed us bountifully. We also begin to think of the less fortunate who are really in need of food, clothing and a friendly hand.

Christmas would be meaningless if we did not have the spirit of sharing, sharing with those in need. Our local churches and civic organizations have joined hands with the White Christmas Committee to give every one an opportunity to participate in this commendable program of bringing joy and cheer to the needy of our community this Christmas Season.

The week ending December 18th has been designated as the week to receive gifts for the needy. Therefore as Mayor of the City of Grenada, Mississippi, I proclaim this particular week as White Christmas Week for Grenada.

May God bless those that give and those who receive.

R. A. Clanton, Mayor.

Famous First Words: "Howdy stranger, what part of Arkansas you-all from? . . . 'Why, we're from Boho Valley . . . Echo Valley . . . Echo Valley . . .'" There's only one thing that can make people do and say more foolish things than love . . . and that's politics.

Here's a quote you will want to remember: "Be kind, for every one you meet is fighting a hard battle, even young children."

If all parents, and especially all teachers realized this truth the lives of the little folks would be much happier. Grownups seldom think of the hard battles the kids have to face. There's the goloshes Johnny hates to wear on a rainy day, and Susan had rather not go to all that wear the same dress she wore there before. Kids are always working under pressure from one source or another. There are so many people dictating to them about something they are told "you must do this" or "you must not do that" until they become confused. How would you like to live among giant size people, towering over you by four feet, who continually yell at you to do this or not do that and you gotta be home by a certain hour (something that pressures them all the time they are away) and to have a set of rules that won't bend and a schedule like a prisoner? Be kind to the little folks . . . they are ALWAYS fighting a hard battle.

Are the people of your town advertising for old broken toys which they propose to rebuild and repaint to be given to little boys and girls who otherwise would not have any gifts for Christmas? Well, you ought to co-operate with them for sure, but first you daddies should consult with your Life Underwriter and arrange for a new kind of policy which would pay your family $250.00 every Christmas for a number of years in case you could not be here to do it yourself. Its pretty hard for a child to understand that when his daddy is gone Christmas is gone too!

The R & R magazine says a college education is now worth about $100,000 although it will cost only about $7,000. It is estimated an average elementary school graduate's life time earnings is $116,000; high school graduate will earn $165,000; one to three years of college will bring in $190,000; but the man who completes four or more years at college will earn in his lifetime, $268,000. Take them thar books home with you young feller - sleep with them - and find out what they say and cram it all in your head and heart, and you will have a good chance to get into the big money when you start to work.

The legal holiday of Thanksgiving came last week, but it wouldn't hurt us any if we practiced the spirit of thankfulness every day like the little birds do. You will always see a little bird take a drop of water in his bill and then turn his head toward heaven as a pose of thankfulness as he drinks.

Heard a little story about John Quincy Adams. As he lay very ill and he knew he'd not have long to live, he was asked how he was feeling. "Oh, I'm fine" he said "but the house (meaning his body) I live in is coming apart and I have word from the owner that he will not repair it, so I'll be moving out soon I suppose."

They call it "legal tender" . . . That green and crackling stuff . . . Its tender when you have it . . . but when you don't, its tough.

BIRTHDAYS SOON FOR:

John C. Lake, 6th; Nick Potera, 6; Grover Long, 7; (Grover's saintly mother's birthday was December 3) Miss Hester Long, 13th; Ada Robinson, 9th; Your fortune: You are usually cheerful, and cheer others, too. When anything irritates you, however, you are likely to become very impatient and fretful. You are idealistic, and it may take you some time to find the right person to wed. Best wishes, Fed.

My Neighbor

Lesson for December 11, 1955

TWO cart-drivers in China were trying to get up a muddy hill. Each driver's cart was stuck in the mud, almost side by side. Each man was beating his own scrawny horse, but the wheels were stuck fast. Along came an American. "Why don't you unhitch one horse," he said "and hitch him to the other cart? Then the two horses might get the cart out of the mud." The carters were astonished. They had never thought of that. But they did as the stranger said, and sure enough they both got to the top of the hill. That true story, told by a missionary, shows two things at once. One is that in countries where Christianity has had a chance to get around, some simple Christian ideas get taken for granted, such as helping your neighbor when he is in trouble. The other is that where Christianity is unknown, even so simple a thing as getting together to pull out of the mud, comes as a strange new idea.

Who Is My Neighbor?
Now if those two Chinese carters had been father and son, or brother and brother, they might have thought of helping each other, for in China nothing is too good for members of your family. But we have no great right to make fun of the Chinese. All of us are inclined to draw pretty hard lines and to think—Outside those lines I have no neighbors. Inside the lines, yes, we understand pretty well what neighborliness is. "Love thy neighbor as thyself" is a commandment not too hard to understand, for we know what it is to love ourselves, that comes all too naturally. We like to get ahead, to cushion ourselves from danger and if possible from discomfort, we consult our own interests. Loving one's neighbor as oneself just means looking out for him in the same careful ways, thinking ahead for him, promoting him. We understand what neighborliness is, yes. We do not confuse it with being meddling. If you want to know as much about your neighbor as you do about yourself, you aren't being a neighbor but a nuisance. If you do for your neighbor what he can very well do for himself, then you are not treating him like a neighbor.

Neighbors Out of Sight
Jesus' famous parable of the Good Samaritan shows that having neighbors is easy, in fact you can't help it; but that the important thing is being a neighbor. It means more than living in "peaceful co-existence" and not bothering each other. It means active co-operation and help, of those who need help. Wherever there is a person in trouble whom we can help, there is a neighbor. In our time the world has grown closer together than it was in Jesus' time. If there had been a famine in India, the good Samaritan would never have known it, or if he had, he could have done nothing about it. Now if there is a famine in India we hear about it as soon as the Indians can; and we can do something about it too. When farmers in a church in Iowa, for instance, send a beeper to a farmer in some out-of-the-way or devastated part of the world across a wide ocean, that is being a neighbor, modern-style for a modern world.

What We Haven't Figured Out
There are many problems we haven't worked out yet, in this business for acting as good neighbors. For example: What is the wisest way to be neighbor to people of different race from our own? How can a mill-worker be a neighbor to the stockholders, or how can the stockholders be neighborly to the workers? When a corporation, in the process of expansion, throws 500 persons out of work at one time, is there any way in which those who are employed by the corporation can be neighbors to those who have lost their positions? How can we be neighbors to people who resent us? How far can we go in helping people without turning them into "moochers" and beggars? How can Christians in one denomination be neighbors to those in another? And one more question: Is it possible for non-Christians to be as good neighbors, in Jesus' sense of the word, as Christians can be?

Gas Mileage goes up AGAIN

And so does the thrill - with Buick's new Variable Pitch Dynaflo!

WITH ALL the big excitement of Buick's 1956 styling and power and ride and handling—it's easy to overlook this fact:

Gas mileage in the '56 Buicks takes a big step upward. One reason, of course, is the new power plant itself. Every new Buick cradles an advanced 322-cubic-inch V8 engine with the highest horsepower, Series for Series, in all Buick history. Yet every engine delivers more efficiency, and more usable power to the rear wheels—because each one has a new double "Y" manifold, and a new high in compression ratio.

But the major reason for the happy news in gas mileage—and for the new step-up in safety and thrills—is Buick's latest version of Variable Pitch Dynaflo.

In this airplane-principled transmission, you always had a gas-saving cruising range—and, at a switch of the pitch, a full-power getaway range.

Now Buick engineers have brought to this cruising range what they call "double regeneration." It simply means a new way to make flowing oil add to its own velocity to build up driving force.

So now you merely reach for the "Dynaflow" pedal to get new brakes and get a new, smoother, quicker, safer response to the road—where you don't use full power—right at the miles from every tankful of gas.

But when you do need sudden acceleration, the Dynaflo agencies, you just floor the pedal to switch the transmission. Instantly, you're at full-power acceleration—and it's the most thrilling safety measure in the land.

How about coming in to try the most modern transmission yet?

The absolute smoothness of this new Dynaflo is worth a visit in itself. So you can be sure you're in for a wealth of wonderful surprises—for that's just the start of the best Buick yet. Can you make it this week?

New Advanced Variable Pitch Dynaflo is the only Dynaflo Buick builds today. It is standard on Roadmaster, Super and Century—optional at modest extra cost on the Special.*

It's the '56 Buick -

Best Buick yet

Shop, Or Order, Early

This is December 8, with only 15 shopping days until Christmas. Grenada merchants have a wide selection of standard and fancy merchandise for the Yuletide shopper. You are cordially invited to visit all the stores or order early enough for delivery. This year, do your shopping early.

The next two weeks are going to be busy ones for all of us, including the GCW. For our part, we urge that the advertisers, and there should be many of them, get their copy in early.

The public square looks real festive with its overhead ropes of greenery interspersed with lights, huge Santa and poinsettia medallions on posts and Santa and his reindeer mounted on a platform.

Supt. J. C. Hathorn at Grenada High School, announces that classes will dismiss at regular 3:30 time on December 22 and the Christmas holidays will end January 2nd with classes reporting on Tuesday, January 3rd.

Swan Song for Some County Officers

The meeting of the Board of Supervisors on Monday, December 5th, was the final attendance for two of the supervisors, J. W. Bowen of Beat 2, who was defeated for reelection by George Williams and for Barty Fox Supervisor of Beat 5, who was defeated by Noel Staten.

These two successful candidates will take office on January 2 or 3, depending on whether the Monday following New Years Day, which comes on Sunday, is regarded as a holiday or not.

Coleman's Colonels

We wrote Gov.-elect J. P. Coleman recently asking for a complete list of his Grenada County Colonels and received a courteous answer stating that all in Grenada County, who had been asked to be colonels had not replied, so would await the time when the complete list could be published.

The Thousand Coleman Coone's scattered over the state, will deviate from the uniforms worn by Colonels in the past, often called "monkey suits", and will be attired in grey, business suits. When called for state occasions, the Colonels will merely clip a Mississippi Colonel insignia on their lapel. This indeed will set them apart. Never has a governor gone into office with a bigger show of strength. A strength that will reach into the remote corners of the state. Judge Coleman seems to be completely in control of the situation, has a carefully planned approach, and promises efficiency in administration and legislative sessions.

He favors Gov. Whit's "open door" policy, with plans to enlarge upon it to the extent that he (Coleman) favors an end to all Star Chamber Operations by committees by opening their meeting to the press. This takes the place of House and Senate committees formerly held in executive closed session. This same open door policy also applies to all state agencies as a means of letting the public know what is being done about its business.

Talked informally to Asst. Postmaster D. M. Taylor Sr., as he made his weekly deposit for First Baptist Church at Trust Bank last Monday and learned that, including this Christmas, Mr. Taylor has served 39 years at the post office, not missing a single Christmas rush. Needless to say, he and Mrs. Taylor, are not planning to go out of town, nor are they expecting the children and grandchildren during the holidays.

Grantland Rice is credited with these lines:
"For when that one Great Score comes,
To write against your name—
He writes not that you won or lost,
But how you played the game."

Donald Shipp, pharmacist and manager of the Shipp Rexall Drug Store located on Highway 51 South, has sold his store interest to Spivey Kent and Jack McClure, both of whom operate Rexall drug stores in up-town Grenada. Mr. Shipp plans to locate in a town near Grenada and will offer for sale his comfortable home located on Walthall St. in Grenada.

His plans are incomplete however, he will move his family in the near future to their new home. Their many friends here regret their leaving Grenada.

Mr. Floyd Clymer

"Best car manufactured in America today"

That's what Floyd Clymer, famous automobile authority, said about Chrysler in Popular Mechanics (October)

"I have tested many fine automobiles over all kinds of terrain," writes Mr. Clymer, "and in my judgment Chrysler is the best automobile manufactured in America today."

When you compare this Chrysler with the other two major cars in its price class, you will be in for an electrifying awakening. Because this is power driving as it was meant to be.

You push the "D" on the Pushbutton PowerFlite Drive and a mighty airplane-type engine whisks you away in an instant. There's a new, wonderfully easy feel-of-the-road with full-time PowerPilot Steering... a straight, sure, velvety sense of safety in the stops you get with PowerSmooth Brakes... a world of authority in the tremendous response of Chrysler's exclusive airplane-type Fire-Power V-8 engine!

Just one look at this car tells you the power's there. You see it in the flaring "PowerStyle" lines... in the flight-swept look of its rear deck and fenders. Let us put you behind the wheel of the "PowerStyle" Chrysler for just 15 minutes this week. Compare its all-around performance with its two price competitors. Then you'll know why "the best car manufactured in America" is your best buy! Come in or call us today!

Old Age Assistance Checks To Be Increased

The Mississippi Department of Public Welfare will increase the old age assistance checks of many persons who are already receiving this kind of help. The raises will be made in the December checks of persons who are not already getting the legal maximum of $30 and who do not have other changes in their circumstances that will affect the amount of their check.

The Welfare Department has found that it will have enough money to make these raises from funds that it had expected to have to use to put on additional people who are sixty-five or over and become unable to help themselves. Not as many people have applied this fall as has been expected. This is due for the most part to the good crop year and

Can You

No, this false belief stems from the high incidence of the disease among the children of tuberculous parents. Pulmonary tuberculosis, the most prevalent reinfection type, seldom occurs in children under ten years of age; beyond that age its incidence rises sharply. It is much easier to prevent than to cure many infectious diseases. See your doctor regularly. He knows what must be done to insure protection. Depend upon us to fill your prescriptions promptly.

The Reason For Christmas Seals Told

Perhaps you, like the school boy who wrote the letter below, are asking, "Why Do We Have Christmas Seals?"

"Dear Madam,

"We were talking in class about the Christmas Seals that come in the mail to most of our homes. We know our parents send money for them to the TB Association but we do not know just how the money is spent. Will you please tell us why we have Christmas Seals and what you do with the money?"

This is the answer from the Chairman of the 1955 Seal Sale:

"Dear John,

"Christmas Seal money is spent to protect you and your family from tuberculosis. We hope some day to be able to wipe out this terrible disease so that you will never meet it face to face. We spend money to help boys and girls like you to learn to keep healthy, we tell people the truth about TB so that they will not be afraid of it but will protect themselves against it. We try to find the people who have TB by supporting the Mobile Unit in this county, and by buying X-ray films for the Health Department to make pictures of suspected cases and contacts. We try to help those who have TB by supporting the Rehabilitation program.

"These are some of the ways in which your money is spent."

Shooting In Belzoni Attracts Nation's Attention

Well, it seems that the state of Mississippi is to be further subjected to criticism by the entire nation in the mystery shooting of Gus Courts, Negro store keeper in Belzoni which occurred Friday night Nov. 25.

In Jackson, Gov. Hugh White urged a thorough investigation of the shooting and according to Kenneth Foler, staff writer for the Commercial Appeal, the FBI began their investigation Sunday. Local law officers are cooperating with the FBI.

Courts, a supposed-to-be NAACP leader in Humphrey County, maintains that Negroes are being pressured not to register to vote there.

All of this tends to create bad blood between the races in Mississippi, and is to be deplored. Who was it that said "Divide and Conquer?"

Accurate Meter Checking Service For Gas

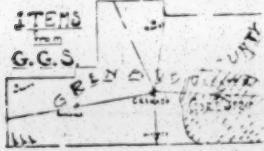

The Mississippi LP Gas Dealers Association, realizing the need for accurate measuring of gas, appointed a committee recently which set up a meter checking service with Moulden Supply Company, Jackson, Miss.
